Dear Ali:

Thank you for your very kind note.

It is, indeed, a very great honor to serve this President, and while my present duties may delay my seeing you and Mohamed and London again, I trust you will understand.

Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Dear Jack:

Thanks very much for your note and for your encouragement.

It's a special honor to serve this President, and I'll do my best.

I appreciate your offer of assistance, and you shouldn't be surprised if I take you up on it one of these days.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.
Chief of Staff to the President

Dear Charlie:

I can't tell you how grateful I am for all you've done for the Bakers over the last several years, and your letter of encouragement is only the latest example.

I don't know how long this smile is going to last, but it's people like you who put it there in the first place.

Thanks for everything.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.
Chief of Staff to the President

Dear Tom:

Thanks for your letter and your encouragement.

I haven't dared calculate what my hourly rate is around here and will do my best not to think about it.

I will certainly call if you can be helpful, as you probably can. Keep Gannett on the straight and narrow, and I'll try to do the same here.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.
Chief of Staff to the President

Dear Pierce:

Thanks very much for your letter. I am glad to hear of Dr. Cheek's reaction to the news of my appointment, but I must say there have been days here when I feel that I'm the 94-year-old.

John Cooper chose well when he chose you to assist him many years ago. I hope people will say as much for the President and for me at the end of this assignment as well as at the beginning.

I hope to see you again soon.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.
Chief of Staff to the President

Dear Bob:

Thanks for your letter. I appreciate the good counsel you've given me over the years, and I hope I can count on it again.

Sincerely,

Dear Bus:

Thanks very much for your note. Had I but known what lay in store for me when the President called me at the Sea View a few days ago, I would have tried harder to be on the beach or the tennis court -- anywhere but near a telephone.

I offer you the same advice, knowing you wouldn't take it either.

Best to Pat.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.
Chief of Staff to the President

Dear Vinegar Bend:

Thanks very much for your note.

Your former press secretary Pat Butler is helping us out informally down here, but we'll try to muddle through anyway.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.
Chief of Staff to the President

Dear Fritz:

You will be pleased to know that my smile is getting less broad by the hour. You may be surprised to know that I take seriously your offer of help and will be calling on you.

Thanks for the note. Best to Joan.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.
Chief of Staff to the President

Dear Bill:

Thanks for your note and for the words of encouragement.

I'm sorry that the demands of my new post necessitated my leaving the Mayo board, but it's good to know that your own capable hands are still helping to guide the work there.

It's a special honor to serve this President, and I'll do my best. I hope I can call on you from time to time for your valued advice and counsel.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.
Chief of Staff to the President

Dear Don:

Thanks very much for your words of encouragement and support.

I would welcome the opportunity to talk with you at some length in the next few days, and I'll see if we can work out a mutually agreeable schedule.

It's a special honor to serve this President, as you know, and I look forward to working with you again.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.
Chief of Staff to the President

Dear Ben and Frances:

You two have been so good to me over the years, and your telegram is only the latest such gesture.

I'm determined to help this President do the right thing on all fronts, and I hope to counsel with both of you on many issues.

Thanks again for the encouragement.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.
Chief of Staff to the President
